

The lift kit adds height to a standard kit. Water might travel down the face of the large main pieces so they should cantilever over the pool edge as a drip line.

The large core holes should be filled with concrete for additional stability and a thick mortar bed should be used to secure the top ledger pieces.

Lift Kit is available in two pieces for a radius application.

Lift Kit Pieces

Main base piece is available in two sections for a radius application

